Power of Branding

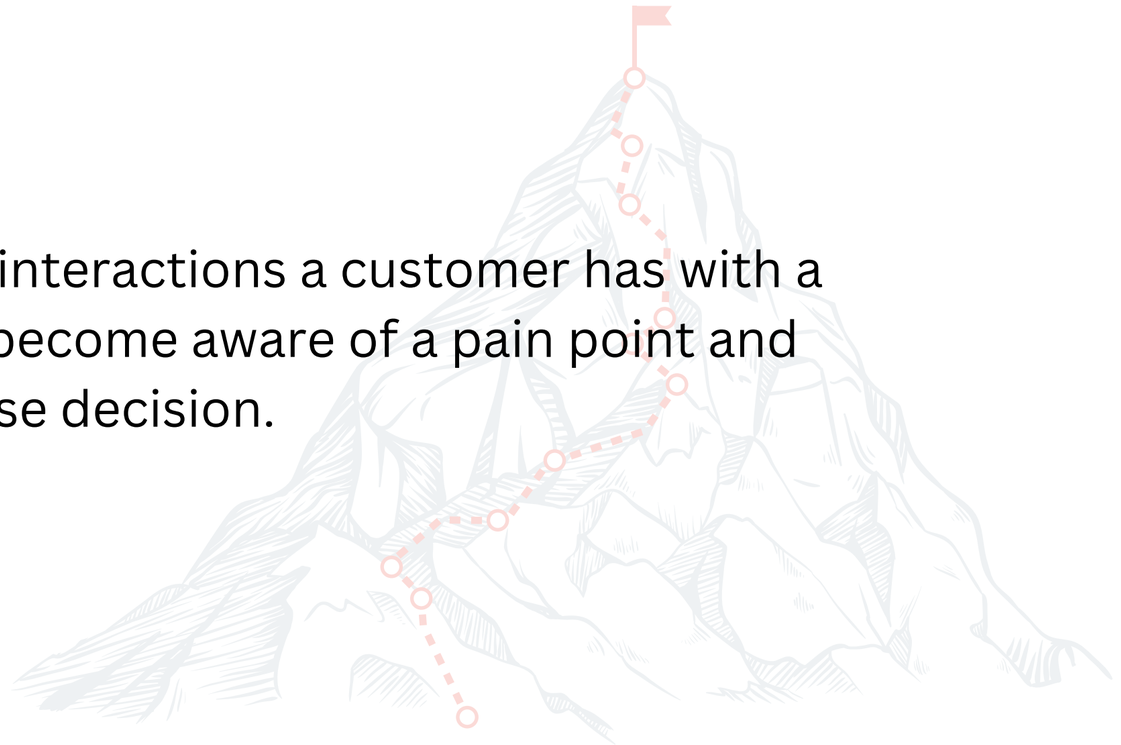

Customer Journey Mapping

The customer journey is the series of interactions a customer has with a brand, product, or business as they become aware of a pain point and make a purchase decision.

Customer Journey Mapping

Seneca POLYTECHNIC

Awareness

Your customer becomes aware of a pain point they have.

Consideration

Your customer weights all options they are aware of.

Decision

The buyers goal is to find available vendors, shortlist, and make a final purchase.

Market Size

Who is your market and how many customers are there? Is it a growing market?

Class Exercise

Small VS. Large Market Sizes

What are the advantages and disadvantages of each?

Market Size Estimations

A framework that can be used is TAM, SAM, and SOM. Total addressable market (TAM) refers to the entire size of the market. Serviceable Addressable Market (SAM) refers to how much of the market you can realistically achieve. Serviceable Obtainable Market (SOM) is how much is accessible to you now.

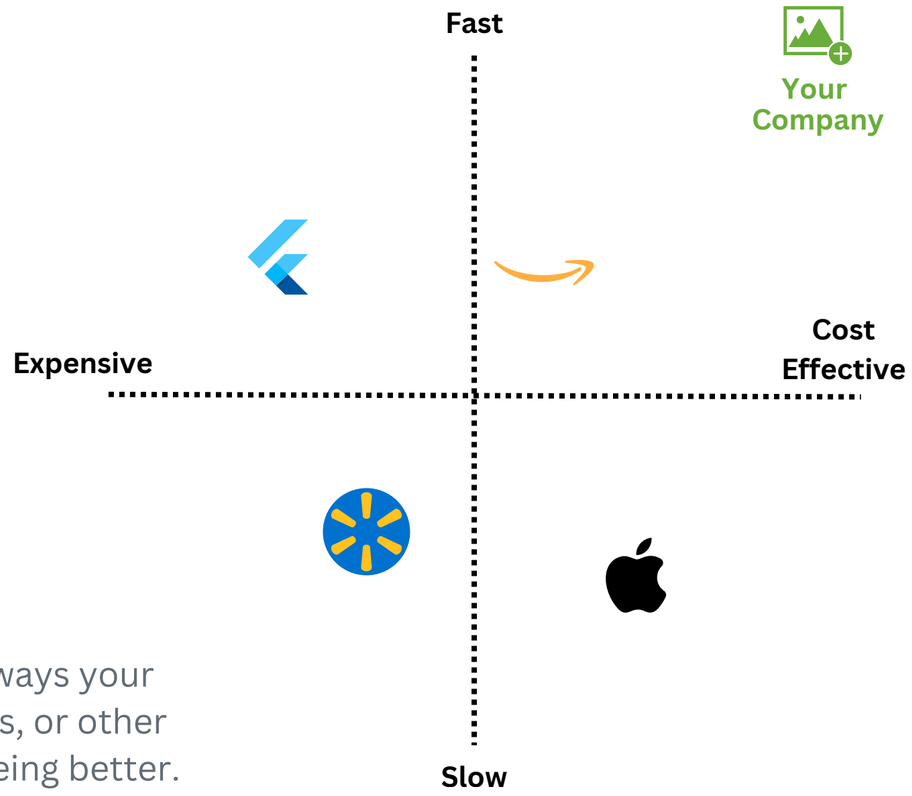

Market Segmentation

Market segmentation involves dividing your target market into manageable groups. By segmenting the market, subsets are created based on demographics, needs, priorities, common interests, and other psychographic or behavioral criteria. This method helps in gaining a deeper understanding of the target audience.

S.W.O.T Analysis

Strengths
Weaknesses
Opportunities
Threats

SWOT Analysis is a tool that can help you to analyze what your company does best now, and to devise a successful strategy for the future. SWOT can also uncover areas of the business that are holding you back, or that your competitors could exploit if you don't protect yourself.

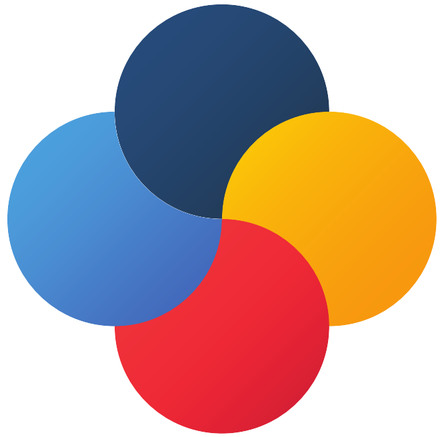

Competitors Analysis

The 4 P’s of Marketing

Product
Price
Place
Promotion

The four Ps provide a framework on which to build your marketing strategy. In most cases, one or more of these 4 categories will be the reason why customers will choose you over your competitors.

https://www.investopedia.com/terms/f/four-ps.asp#:~:text=The%20four%20Ps%20or%20marketing

Competitors Analysis

First, analyze the Product you will be marketing. What are the characteristics that make it appealing? Consider similar products that are already on the market. Your product may be tougher, easier to use, more attractive, or longer-lasting. Its ingredients might be environmentally friendly or naturally sourced. Identify the qualities that will make it appealing to your target consumers.

Or are you competing on Price? Perhaps you are cheaper than your competitors or you are luxury brand.

Place refers to where consumers buy your product, or where they discover it. Is it only available online? Are you a local retailer? Take the pharmacy scenario for example. The customer had an immediate need and decided a local retailer was their best option.

Promotion refers to specific and thoughtful advertising that reaches the target market for the product. You might use an Instagram campaign, a public relations campaign, advertising placement, email marketing, or some combination of all of these to promote your products and reach the right audience in the right place.

Marketing Channels

Marketing channels are any mediums used to connect with your target market. This could include social media platforms, billboards, hiring influencers, and other forms of offline and online advertisement. Finding the most effective marketing channel depends on your product/service and customer behavior.

Marketing Channels

Outbound Marketing

You reach out to individuals, usually by cold messaging.

Inboud Marketing

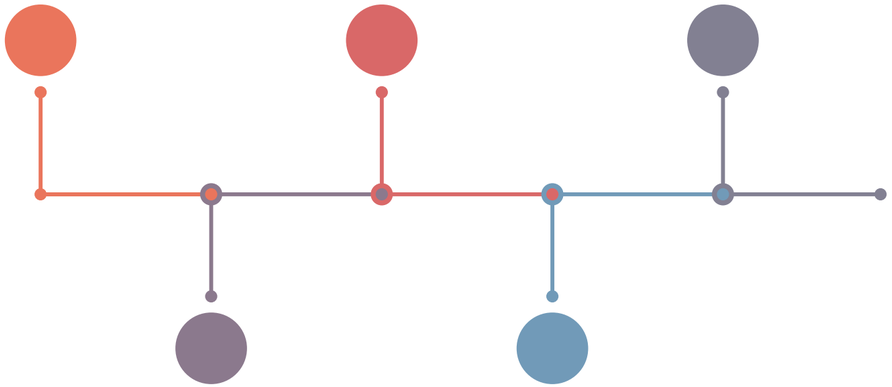

Individuals reach out to you!

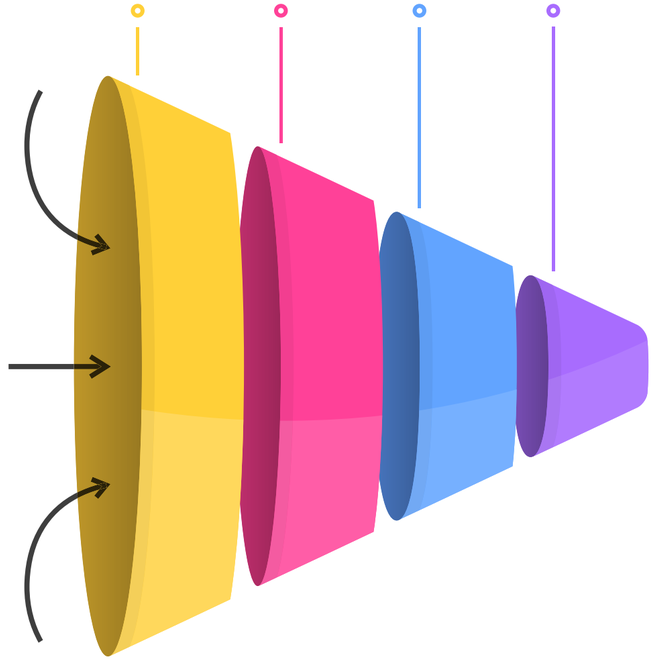

Which is easier?

ROOMBA sells medical supplies to local pharmacies. Shipping is expensive for heavy material and they can only deliver supplies in around a 150km radius of their warehouse.

1. We first need to understand how many pharmacies are in our SOM and which ones are our potential customers.
2. We then need to understand the purchasing patterns and behavior for pharmacy owners. What's the best way to communicate with them?
3. We need to create the content and effectively communicate our value proposition in order to close the deal.

Sales

ROOMBA sells medical supplies to local pharmacies.

1. We first need to understand how many pharmacies are in our SOM and which ones are our potential customers?

Ontario College of Pharmacists
Putting patients first since 1871

Through our market research, we found that a list of all pharmacies can be found on ocpinfo.com. They also have a filter for cities!

Sales

ROOMBA sells medical supplies to local pharmacies.

1. We first need to understand how many pharmacies are in our SOM and which ones are our potential customers?

The pharmacies most likely to purchase medical supplies have a large store front. So we will organize our pharmacies in an excel sheet and qualify pharmacies based off a google search.

Sales

ROOMBA sells medical supplies to local pharmacies.

1. We first need to understand how many pharmacies are in our SOM and which ones are our potential customers?

Pharmacy Name	Pharmacy Address	Pharmacy Website	Do they have a large storefront?
Markham Pharmacy	1740 Applewood Crest	markhampharmacy.ca	Yes
IDA Pharmacy	15 Gold St	idapharmacy.com	No
Gaurdian Pharmacy	1790-2 Goreway Dr	gaurdianpharma.ca	No

Sales

ROOMBA sells medical supplies to local pharmacies.

2 We then need to understand the purchasing patterns and behavior for pharmacy owners. What's the best way to communicate with them?

#1 Recommendation: Find an advisor in the space. In our case, it would be a pharmacy owner.

Ask them about:

- A time they have purchased a product/service. How were they approached?
- Ineffective methods of outreach

Sales

ROOMBA sells medical supplies to local pharmacies.

2 We then need to understand the purchasing patterns and behavior for pharmacy owners. What's the best way to communicate with them?

In our case, we found that pharmacists use fax machines for receiving prescriptions and are active on LinkedIn. We will employ the following:

- Fax
- Phone Calls
- Emails
- LinkedIn

Sales

ROOMBA sells medical supplies to local pharmacies.

2 We then need to understand the purchasing patterns and behavior for pharmacy owners. What's the best way to communicate with them?

We will now update the columns on our excel sheet to make sure we collect all the necessary information to reach out to our potential customers.

Sales
